Q&A CHICCN

Q. What inspired you to become a professional boxer?

A. I fell in love with the sport, I started in underground boxing in the clubs.

Q. How do you train and prepare for a fight?

A. I train 2/3 times a day for 5 days and once on one day and rest one day a week. I also change my eating habits.

Q. How do you deal with the pressure and nerves before a fight?

A. I pretty much listen to my music and do my warmups that I always do and just keep myself calm.

Q. Can you describe your most memorable fight and why it was so special?

A. My last fight because I won the IBF inter-continental belt and it was also my tv debut.

Q. How do you handle losses and bounce back from defeats?

A. It definitely feels surreal!! My hardwork is definitely paying off.

Q. How do you balance your personal and professional life while training for a fight?

A. I put the fight first so i do what I can because I wanna be in a good mindset when I'm training.

Q. How do you stay motivated and maintain a positive attitude during your career?

A. My kids are my motivation and be able to accomplish something like this in my life keeps me going.

Q. How do you stay in shape and maintain your physical fitness?

A. Lot of cardio like running, biking, swimming, and doing HIIT classes.

Q. What advice would you give to someone who is just starting out in the sport of boxing?

A. Stay working hard you never know when you might get your break and get those chances to be a world champion.

Q. What are your future goals and aspirations in the sport?

A. My future goal is to become World Champion so that means I'll be the first female from Dallas a World Champion.

Q. How do you handle the physical and mental injuries of boxing?

A. I try and do lots of recovery so that I can stay healthy and prevent injuries.

Q. How do you study and prepare for an opponent before a fight?

A. We pretty much watch film of them and capitalize off their mistakes.

Q. What is the most valuable lesson you have learned from boxing?

A. Protect yourself at All Times

Q. How does your mental preparation differ from your physical preparation for a fight?

A. I be in tune with both so that they both are strong.

Q. How do you see the current state and future of the sport of boxing?

A. I see it going up for women. They are starting to pay us more and have us on tv so I'm very excited.
